

Nominate a project for HEARs first ever #EndHateTogether award

In 2016 HEAR set-up London's pan-equality Hate Crime network, it now has over 100 members, charities and community projects working to challenge Hate Crime and targetted abuse in London, across all equality streams.

To promote and share good practice HEAR has set-up an award for excellent and innovative London projects working across equality, across sector and across communities to #EndHateTogether. Nominated projects will be voted for by HEARs 600+ members and the winning project will be announced during National Hate Crime Awareness Week 14th-21st October 2017.

To nominate a project complete below and send to mhairi@reap.org.uk by 11th September 2017.

Name, organisation and email and role of person nominating

Tell us who is involved in this project. Include details of different 'equality streams' (e.g., faith, LGBTQI, women), different sectors (e.g. police, charity, schools, CPS) and which communities are involved (e.g. refugees, Ealing residents, intersectional women of colour)

Tell us about the why you started this project and what it does

Tell us what successes you have had and what has made you most proud

Give us us some quotes, feedback or qualatative analysis that shows that this is a project where different people and services are working to #EndHateTogether

If you need this form in an alternative format or for more details please email mhairi@reap.org.uk
All nominated projects will be promoted in HEARs mailings and on our website and social media
