

HEAR Chair and Treasurer Advert

HEAR Human Rights and Equality Network is a Charitable Incorporated Organisation (CIO no.1168591) to support London's voluntary and community sector network, working with the most vulnerable, in equality and human rights.

We support member organisations through connections, sharing information, expertise, knowledge, events, research, networking, campaigns, and more recently, the exploration of technology for mapping and information as well as digital inclusion.

We are looking for a Chair and Treasurer to join the Board of Trustees, to help lead the organisation, during this pivotal and exciting time.

As Chair you will have excellent leadership, communication, and interpersonal skills to strategically lead the Board of Trustees with charity governance, compliance, operations, finance, and services.

You will be organised and committed to human rights and equality with an understanding of how this operates at all levels.

You will be a good ambassador. Representing HEAR across London, locally and nationally, with a range of influential partners and organisations.

Ideally you will already have experience as Chair, or senior leadership and management, within an organisation.

As Treasurer you will have good skills and expertise of financial compliance, finance, budgets, forecasting and income generation with an ability to read and present the Charity's financial operations at Board meetings. You will have good interpersonal and communication skills.

If you are interested in either of the above or would like to discuss further, please email: director@hearequality.org.uk with a CV and supporting statement outlining your skills, knowledge, and experience.

We look forward to hearing from you!

www.hearequality.org.uk